Campus Safety and Security Summit

May 15–16, 2018

Northeastern University
Raytheon Amphitheater, Egan Research Center
120 Forsyth Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02115
Campus and Event Crisis Prevention, Protection, and Response

The current threats to centers of higher education associated with ideologically motivated violence and volatile mass protest, while not new, are unprecedented. Strategies and planning for prevention and mitigation must reflect the current threats, tactics, and institutional realities faced on the modern campus. Methods for engaging, communicating, and safeguarding campus communities have changed significantly in a very short period of time. Campus law enforcement, public safety, and emergency management agencies share these challenges across the country. Many have found innovative approaches to tackle these challenges, and others have had their plans and strategies tested by massive, violent protests and terrorist attacks specifically targeting their campus communities.

Presenters include officials from:
- Boston Regional Intelligence Center
- Crime Stoppers USA
- If You See Something, Say Something™
- International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators
- Massachusetts Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators
- National Center for Campus Public Safety
- FBI Behavioral Analysis Unit
- Harvard NPLI
- Nationwide Suspicious Activity Reporting Initiative
- Northeastern University
- Ohio State University
- Rutgers University
- University of Florida

Topics Include

- Lessons learned from recent critical events on campuses
- Examples of tools and resources currently available to help prevent violence associated with campus threats
- Strategies to mitigate the impact where prevention fails
- Information sharing among campus public safety officials, local public safety agencies, and a national network for sharing critical threat information
- Mechanisms for public outreach and anonymous reporting of student safety concerns
- Resources for early assessment and diversion of students demonstrating high-risk potentially violent behaviors
- Hate crimes and bias incidents on college campuses

Summit Takeaways

- Identifying and understanding emerging threats to campus safety
- Identifying strategies for evaluating campuses with regard to the corresponding risks
- Receiving recommendations from leading experts and organizations on prevention and mitigation strategies
