

Chantelle Cleary Biography

Chantelle Cleary is the director for institutional equity and Title IX coordinator at Cornell University. In this role, Chantelle is responsible for overseeing the university's responses to unlawful discrimination and sexual and related misconduct. This includes conducting prompt, equitable, and thorough investigations into allegations of unlawful discrimination and sexual assault occurring within the campus community and participating in the coordination of Cornell's sexual misconduct prevention and education programs.

Prior to joining Cornell University in June 2018, Chantelle served as the assistant vice president for equity and compliance and Title IX coordinator at the University at Albany in Albany, New York.

Chantelle spent the first decade of her career as an assistant district attorney assigned exclusively to the prosecution of sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking, and crimes against children. While in that role, Chantelle developed an expertise in trauma-informed interviewing practices and investigation technique.

Chantelle also serves as a faculty member for the National Center for Campus Public Safety and Cornell Law School. Chantelle received her B.A. from Binghamton University and her J.D. from Albany Law School.
