

Investigator Amy Juneau

Biography

Amy Juneau has been in law enforcement for approximately 12 years and is currently assigned to the Louisiana State Police's (LSP) Special Victim's Unit that focuses primarily on human trafficking investigations and internet crimes against children. Previously, Amy worked as an investigator in the Intelligence Division of the LSP and also for the East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's Office in the Detectives Bureau as a crime scene detective. In her current role with the LSP, Amy is responsible for all human trafficking investigations involving adults or children that are received in her area and throughout the state. She also assists other local and federal agencies with their human trafficking investigations. Amy is partnered with numerous task forces, including the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force and Homeland Security Investigations.

Amy is an instructor for the LSP teaching human trafficking investigations. She travels throughout the state of Louisiana providing child exploitation and human trafficking investigations training to various agencies and has partnered with the East Baton Rouge Sheriff's Office and Federal Bureau of Investigation's Baton Rouge Office to teach human trafficking for the Capital Area Regional Training Academy. Amy also provides training to nonprofit organizations.
